Every Shiny app has a webpage that the user visits, and behind this webpage there is a computer that serves this webpage by running R.